Cruising News . . . September 2018

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Humane Society needs our support! Blues, Brews, and Barbeque, Sept. 8th

The Rogue Valley Humane Society is a wonderful "no kill" organization that is vital to our community. So let's get out to support their upcoming Blues, Brews & Barbeque on Saturday, September 8, at Tom Pierce Park in Grants Pass. Bring your classic or hot rod to the park between 1pm & 2pm and you'll be directed to a good parking spot (event starts at 2pm and runs through 7pm). There's no entry fee if you bring your car to display! There will be great food, live music, various vendors, and lots of attendees who appreciate our beautiful cars. The Humane Society's slogan is "Helping the Community: Four Paws at a Time." How about we expand that a bit . . . so with our participation, we can say "Helping the animals: Four wheels at a time."
Good cruising, Jim.

Upcoming Events

RVCC members support the “Lady Stangs”

RVCC was well represented at the Lady Stangs Car Show at Hidden Valley High School in August. Members chuckled over the following awards:

- Dave Borup, “Top Alcohol Funny Car” award for his 1932 Ford Vicky
- Judy Norris, “It’s About Time” award for her 1974 GMC Truck
- Alex Oliva, “Golden Car” award for his 1937 Ford Roadster
- Bob Simmons, “Best Trailer Queen” award for his 1955 Chevy 210 Wagon
- Ron Cook, “My Mom Said No” award for his 1966 Mustang

The Hidden Valley High Girls Soccer Team is doing so well and we know they’ll excel at the upcoming state competition! These wonderful “Lady Stang” athletes really enjoyed our club’s participation. It’s great to see how much young people appreciate the beauty of the classic and muscle cars.

Cruising with Cathy and Connie . . . join in the fun!

NEXT CRUISE: September 1, breakfast at the Cave Junction Senior Center. Meet at 9am in Albertson’s (Allen Creek Road) parking lot.

As Cathy Weed and Connie Gates work on ideas for upcoming cruises, they would love to add YOUR favorite cruising destinations to the schedule. Possible ideas include a visit to Randy Grubb’s garage (builder of futuristic cars), a trip to the Crater Rock Museum in Central Point with lunch at Spoons restaurant, a trip to Shady Cove to Mac’s Diner, etc. Let Cathy (541-244-1400) or Connie (541-582-1695) know what YOU think.

Don’t be shy . . . Let Joy know when you win an award.

No, it’s not bragging! RVCC loves to hear about your awards as well as any adventures you’d like to share with the newsletter. We try to learn about what’s happening at the many shows out there but we can’t be everywhere so please email or call Joy Westberg with any news you’d like to share. She’s counting on you! Jpegs of your pics are great as well so please email them. joyaugustin17@gmail.com

Another great “Fabulous Fifties” show thanks to our hardworking club members

Kathy Simmons, our car show leader extraordinaire, has been collecting the many glowing reviews from satisfied show participants:

- Registration: “Great. Preregistered check-in went smoothly. Efficient, excellent, friendly people. Very easy, very well done. Good job on everything.”
- Parking: “Great work. Plenty of volunteers. Very smooth. Helpful nice people. Easy in and out. Kept our club together—all ten of us! Well organized.”
- Awards: “Thank you to all the sponsors. Excellent, great awards. Plentiful. A+.”
- T-Shirts and Caps: “Well made. Good selection. Great price. We bought shirts—loved them.”
- General comments: “Excellent show—Thank you! Overall, nicely done. We have attended for four years. Nice to see that not the same people get jacket awards every year. One of the best car shows and cruises that I go to. Beautiful park.”

RVCC Annual Picnic and Meeting Minutes, Sunday, August 12, 2018

The weather gods were kind and gave RVCC a beautiful, sunny, smoke-free day for our picnic at the Harry & David shelter in Baseball Park. Tacomania provided a delicious taco buffet. There was plenty of food, soft drinks, and desserts to fortify picnic goers for the water balloon toss and trivia games that followed lunch.

Minutes from the picnic/meeting . . .

- Meeting was called to order by President Jim Wells.
- Fab '50s show: A very big “Thanks” to all who participated in the Fab '50s Car Show, especially our fearless car show leader, Kathy Simmons, who brings order to chaos. Her secret? Hours and hours of hard work!
- Lady Stangs Car Show: The club approved Ron Cook’s suggestion that we honor the Hidden Valley “Lady Stangs” by giving each girl a photo of the team and cars along with a $400 donation to the team as a whole.
- Bonnie Stoll Memorial: A photo of Bonnie and a plaque honoring her memory were presented to Roy Stoll in an emotional ceremony.
- Charity recipients discussion: Four non-profit groups have indicated an interest in a donation from RVCC: Girls Rock (Stem Project), Illinois Valley High School, Josephine County Foundation and College Dreams. They will be making presentations at the November club meeting and we’ll be voting on them at the December meeting. Club members are encouraged to research these groups online before the November meeting to learn more about them.
