PRESIDENT'S AND VICE PRESIDENT'S COLUMN "WAY TO GO!"

It's no secret that Rogue Valley Classic Cruisers members are a diverse group of enthusiasts, who happen to own an equally diverse array of vehicles. This was never more apparent than at the Medford Rod and Custom Show that was held at the world class Rogue X Sports Complex last month. With a record breaking 27 RVCC member vehicles on display, the variety of cars and trucks was nothing short of amazing. From classics and customs to hot rods, muscle cars and even a mini-big rig, the display really caught everyone's attention at the show. And for the second year in a row, the Rogue Valley Classic Cruisers won the Club Participation Award at the show for having the most vehicles on display. A big tip of the hat to each of the RVCC members who displayed their vehicles at what has become one of the more prestigious indoor shows in the Pacific Northwest.

In addition, RVCC volunteers manned the sign-up table that fronted two of the five isles of vehicles in the display, talking to exhibitors and spectators about the club, the benefits to becoming a member and the numerous activities we host all year long. Needless to say, several new members were signed up at the show, including two of them who had their vehicles on display at the Rod and Custom Show.

Among the attendees were representatives from the Portland Roadster Show, The Gathering at the Oaks Show and Tim Newey, the editor of Oregon Car Culture. At many shows, scouts are looking for vehicles to invite to their shows, while several editors were photographing vehicles and interviewing their owners for event coverage. Look for many of these same people to be in attendance at the upcoming 30th Annual Fabulous 50's Charity Car Show in July. As an RVCC member, the Fabulous 50's is your show, and we hope that you will display your pride and joy(s) at this long running event. There are lots of awards that will be presented at the show, and there is a good chance that you could be one of the winners. Now is the perfect time to register your vehicle for the Fabulous 50's Show that has now been expanded into a big three-day event.
